

TEMIX SIGNS A DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT WITH GETRONICS
MIDDLE EAST REINFORCING THEIR COMMITMENT IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA

Catania – Italy, 17th June 2008 - Temix consolidates its presence in the Middle East and North Africa by signing an agreement with Getronics Middle East.

"We are reinforcing our commitment in the Middle East and North Africa by partnering with Getronics ME, their historical presence in the territory, competence and professionalism in addition to their customer centric strategy are the reasons that today urge us to seek common synergies, in line with our expansion plans in the market " - said Armando Caravella, General Manager of Temix.

"In a time of great technological convergence, innovation and quality solutions Temix will allow us to integrate the enormous potential offered by modern communications systems, wireless and satellite offering our customers advanced ICT solutions " - said Said Khoubbach, Regional Manager of Getronics ME, "the partnership with Temix has allowed us to meet specific needs of new and exciting user segments of the market."

Temix is a company focused on new generation wireless communications systems, including WiMAX, the innovative portable terminals for satellite communications and wireless sensors networks.

Getronics offers a set of targeted and customized services ranging from consulting to maintenance, the execution of turnkey plants to technical support

About Getronics Middle East

Getronics is a global ICT services and solution company with a strong presence in the Middle East since the early 90's.

Operating from offices in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates, Getronics ME covers the Middle East and North Africa (Qatar, Bahrain, Syria, Jordan, Egypt and Oman) with the help of professional and highly qualified Service Partners.

Focused on delivering ICT solutions and services to our esteemed clientele, Getronics ME maintains a high level of service delivery and assurance leaving behind an indisputable list of extremely satisfied clients in various verticals of the market.

NEWS RELEASE

About Getronics Corporate

With global annual revenue of 2.5 billion Euros, a global presence in 18 countries worldwide and 23000 employees at the end of 2007, Getronics is a leading international provider of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) services and solutions, focusing on workspace management, application services & transformation and consulting services. Getronics enables people in large organizations to move forward by releasing the power of information, anywhere, anytime and securely. On 23 October 2007, Getronics was acquired by KPN, the leading provider of telecommunications services in the Netherlands. Getronics' headquarters are located in Amsterdam. For further information please visit www.getronics.com.

About TEMIX

TEMIX is an Italian company dedicated to the research, design, development and manufacture of wireless data solutions for broadcasting, broadband access and sensor networks as well as satcom systems and mobile data applications. Founded in 2003 from an idea of the current management team, Temix currently has a development team of 24 hardware and software engineers and offers integrated, flexible and cost-effective solutions and a wide range of services including device and system designing (for electronics and microwave), manufacturing, integration and maintenance. The key points of the company's mission are excellence, flexibility, integrity and friendliness towards all customers, partners and suppliers.

For further information kindly visit: <http://www.temix.it>

Press Contact:

Temix - tel. + 39 095 7802811 Sonia Sabato email: s.sabato@temix.it

